Indian Diploma in Critical Care Medicine (IDCCM)

Indian Society of Critical Care Medicine (ISCCM) offers training programs in accredited institutions across the country. Candidates who complete appropriate training are eligible to appear for an exam. Upon successful completion of the theory and practical exam, candidates are awarded "Indian Diploma in Critical Care Medicine" (IDCCM).

Candidates who appeared for this exam prior to 2009 were awarded "Certificate in Critical Care Medicine" and ISCCM confirms that candidates possessing this certificate have completed the same process as those who are awarded IDCCM currently.
